To the Red River Baptist Pastors Fellowship,

I would like to recommend Samuel Knickerbocker. Sam is my Brother Peter's son. Peter is a Missionary to France. Sam is starting a Baptist Church in Wilmington, Delaware. He is starting the church out of his home church, Capitol Baptist Church in Dover, Del. pastored by his father-in-law Terri Moore! I have preached there many time and they are a good independent fundamental Baptist church. Their Music is good, they use only the King James Bible and they stand where the Red River Preachers stand.

Samuel is a Crown College of the Bible graduate and has already help start the first church with his father-in-law and is now launching out to start his own church.

His wife Justine worked at Lake Texoma Baptist Camp the first year and worked for me. She is very responsible, loves the Lord and is a great helpmeet to Sam. They have three children. They will be receiving some help from their home church but are in need of support since he will not longer be on staff at Capitol Baptist Church.

I appreciate your consideration of the Sam Knickerbocker family in the starting of a brand new church this year 2016 in Wilmington, Del.

If you have any questions from me feel free to call me at 817-575-7360. If Sam is considered for the support and I am in town. I will be there.

God bless you,

Daniel D. Knickerbocker
